THE COLLECT OF THE DAY:

Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins, and give us the liberty of that abundant life which you have made known to us in your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading: Isaiah 40:21-31

Have you not known? Have you not heard? Has it not been told you from the beginning? Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth? It is he who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers; who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them like a tent to live in; who brings princes to naught, and makes the rulers of the earth as nothing. Scarcely are they planted, scarcely sown, scarcely has their stem taken root in the earth, when he blows upon them, and they wither, and the tempest carries them off like stubble. To whom then will you compare me, or who is my equal? says the Holy One. Lift up your eyes on high and see: Who created these? He who brings out their host and numbers them, calling them all by name; because he is great in strength, mighty in power, not one is missing. Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel, "My way is hidden from the LORD, and my right is disregarded by my God"? Have you not known? Have you not heard? The LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the faint, and strengthens the powerless. Even youths will faint and be weary, and the young will fall exhausted; but those who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

Psalm 147:1-12, 21c

Hallelujah!

How good it is to sing praises to our /God! *
how pleasant it is to honor him with /praise!

The LORD rebuilds Je/rusalem; *
he gathers the exiles of /Israel.

He heals the broken/hearted *
and binds up their /wounds.

He counts the number of the /stars *
and calls them all by their /names.

Great is our LORD and mighty in /power; *
there is no limit to his /wisdom.

The LORD lifts up the /lowly, *
but casts the wicked to the /ground.

Sing to the LORD with thanks/giving; *
make music to our God upon the /harp.

He covers the heavens with /clouds *
and prepares rain for the /earth;

He makes grass to grow upon the /mountains *
and green plants to serve man/kind.

He provides food for flocks and /herds *
and for the young ravens when they /cry.

He is not impressed by the might of a /horse; *
he has no pleasure in the strength of a /man;

But the LORD has pleasure in those who /fear him, *
in those who await his gracious /favor.

Hallelujah!

The Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 9:16-23

If I proclaim the gospel, this gives me no ground for boasting, for an obligation is laid on me, and woe to me if I do not proclaim the gospel! For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward; but if not of my own will,

I am entrusted with a commission. What then is my reward? Just this: that in my proclamation I may make the gospel free of charge, so as not to make full use of my rights in the gospel. For though I am free with respect to all, I have made myself a slave to all, so that I might win more of them. To the Jews I became as a Jew, in order to win Jews. To those under the law I became as one under the law (though I myself am not under the law) so that I might win those under the law. To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law) so that I might win those outside the law. To the weak I became weak, so that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all people, that I might by all means save some. I do it all for the sake of the gospel, so that I may share in its blessings.

Gradual Hymn: No. 429 I'll Praise My Maker While I've Breath

Old 113th

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Gospel: Mark 1:29-39

Jesus left the synagogue at Capernaum, and entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. Now Simon's mother-in-law was in bed with a fever, and they told him about her at once. He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up. Then the fever left her, and she began to serve them. That evening, at sundown, they brought to him all who were sick or possessed with demons. And the whole city was gathered around the door. And he cured many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and he would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him. In the morning, while it was still very dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed. And Simon and his companions hunted for him. When they found him, they said to him, "Everyone is searching for you." He answered, "Let us go on to the neighboring towns, so that I may proclaim the message there also; for that is what I came out to do." And he went throughout Galilee, proclaiming the message in their synagogues and casting out demons.

You are invited to fill out a visitor's card and place it in the alms basin. You may also sign the Guest Register. Informational brochures are found at the entrance of the church. We are glad you are here!

ALTAR FLOWERS: The flowers adorning the altar today were given by Theo & Philip Houser in honor of their wedding anniversary. The sign-up sheets for 2012 are on the bulletin board by the parish hall kitchen. The orders are generally turned in to the florist during the first week of each month. The florist does the billing for us ($35.00 plus tax and delivery). The Church does not budget for flowers. It is up to the parishioners to donate if there are to be flowers on the altar. Your donations are always greatly appreciated.

PROJECT DIGNIDAD: Fill the black basket at the front of the church with dry or canned goods to help the emergency food pantry. All donations are blessed at the altar before taking them to P.D. Tax deductible donations are of course welcome and checks may be made to "Project Dignidad". Speak to Rebecca Duncan for more information and volunteer opportunities.

GO GREEN & RECYCLE": thanks to a generous donation, Emmanuel Church is making more efforts to "GO GREEN". Please help us by putting any recyclables in the large black bins located near the Parish Hall. Please do not bring your household recyclables. Go Green & Recycle does not require that we sort the recycling, so you can just drop it in one of the bins or the large green tote in the copy room. This is perfect for recycling Sunday bulletins, food wrappers and cans from meals, even the paper and plastic cups used during Courtyard Coffee. (Please note that they are not accepting Styrofoam, yet.)

GRACE AND GRUB Volunteers Needed! Emmanuel feeds 200+ high school students on Tuesdays during the school year. We start serving at 12:40 PM and could use more help feeding these hungry kids. Please consider this outreach ministry for 2012.

The best sellers are (in order of popularity) chocolate chip, macadamia nut, white chocolate chunk, m&m, snicker doodle, peanut butter, and sugar.
