THE COLLECT OF THE DAY:

Almighty and everlasting God, you govern all things both in heaven and on earth: Mercifully hear the supplications of your people, and in our time grant us your peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading: Deuteronomy 18:15-20

Moses said, The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people; you shall heed such a prophet. This is what you requested of the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly when you said: "If I hear the voice of the LORD my God any more, or ever again see this great fire, I will die." Then the LORD replied to me: "They are right in what they have said. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their own people; I will put my words in the mouth of the prophet, who shall speak to them everything that I command. Anyone who does not heed the words that the prophet shall speak in my name, I myself will hold accountable. But any prophet who speaks in the name of other gods, or who presumes to speak in my name a word that I have not commanded the prophet to speak-- that prophet shall die."

Lector: The Word of the Lord

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 111 Page 754, BCP

Hallelujah!

I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole /heart, *
in the assembly of the upright, in the conger/gation.

Great are the deeds of the /LORD! *
they are studied by all who delight in /them.

His work is full of majesty and /splendor, *
and his righteousness endures for /ever.

He makes his marvelous works to be re/membered; *
the LORD is gracious and full of com/passion.

He gives food to those who /fear him; *
he is ever mindful of his /covenant.

He has shown his people the power of his /works *
in giving them the lands of the /nations.

The works of his hands are faithfulness and /justice; *
all his commandments are /sure.

They stand fast for ever and /ever, *
because they are done in truth and /equity.

He sent redemption to his people;
he commanded his covenant for /ever; *
holy and awesome is his /Name.

The fear of the LORD is the beginning of /wisdom; *
those who act accordingly have a good understanding; his praise endures for /ever.

The Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 8:1-13

Now concerning food sacrificed to idols: we know that "all of us possess knowledge." Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. Anyone who claims to know something does not yet have the necessary knowledge; but anyone who loves God is known by him. Hence, as to the eating of food offered to idols, we know that "no idol in the world really exists," and that "there is no God but one." Indeed, even though there may be so-called gods in heaven or on earth-- as in fact there are many gods and many lords-- yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist. It is not everyone, however, who has this knowledge. Since some have become so accustomed to idols until now, they still think of the food they eat as food offered to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.

"Food will not bring us close to God." We are no worse off if we do not eat, and no better off if we do. But take care that this liberty of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to the weak. For if others see you, who possess knowledge, eating in the temple of an idol, might they not, since their conscience is weak, be encouraged to the point of eating food sacrificed to idols? So by your knowledge those weak believers for whom Christ died are destroyed. But when you thus sin against members of your family, and wound their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ. Therefore, if food is a cause of their falling, I will never eat meat, so that I may not cause one of them to fall.

Gradual Hymn: No. 567 Thine Arm, O Lord, in Days of Old

St. Matthew

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Gospel: Mark 1:21-28

Jesus and his disciples went to Capernaum; and when the sabbath came, he entered the synagogue and taught. They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God." But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. They were all amazed, and they kept on asking one another, "What is this? A new teaching-- with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him." At once his fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.

Announcements and Reminders

WELCOME TO EMMANUEL CHURCH! If you are visiting we hope that you will return again and often, and make this your church home. You are invited to fill out a visitor's card and place it in the alms basin. You may also sign the Guest Register. Informational brochures are found at the entrance of the church. We are glad you are here!

ALTAR FLOWERS: The flowers adorning the altar today were given by Norma Faubion in thanksgiving and by Mark & Bryce Thieman in celebration of Drew's birthday. The sign-up sheets for 2012 are on the bulletin board by the parish hall kitchen. The orders are generally turned in to the florist during the first week of each month. The florist does the billing for us ($35.00 plus tax and delivery). The Church does not budget for flowers. It is up to the parishioners to donate if there are to be flowers on the altar. Your donations are always greatly appreciated.

PROJECT DIGNIDAD: Fill the black basket at the front of the church with dry or canned goods to help the emergency food pantry. All donations are blessed at the altar before taking them to P.D. Tax deductible donations are of course welcome and checks may be made to "Project Dignidad". Speak to Rebecca Duncan for more information and volunteer opportunities.

GO GREEN & RECYCLE": thanks to a generous donation, Emmanuel Church is making more efforts to "GO GREEN". Please help us by putting any recyclables in the large black bins located near the Parish Hall. Please do not bring your household recyclables. Go Green & Recycle does not require that we sort the recycling, so you can just drop it in one of the bins or the large green tote in the copy room. This is perfect for recycling Sunday bulletins, food wrappers and cans from meals, even the paper and plastic cups used during Courtyard Coffee. (Please note that they are not accepting Styrofoam, yet.)

AGAPE GROUPS: The final seven Agape Groups for this year have been formed. If you have signed up for this dinner program, you have been assigned to a group. The lists are posted on the bulletin board near the parish hall. Soon you will be receiving a call from your group coordinator. If you have any questions, please call Theo Houser at 655-5425

CHURCH DIRECTORIES are here! Please come by the church office for your copy.

MISSING: Have you seen the picture of Fr. Allan that hung on the entrance way wall? If so, please contact the office or M'Lu McDaniel. We would like to hang his picture up with the past rectors in the parish hall.

GRACE AND GRUB Volunteers Needed! Emmanuel feeds 200+ high school students on Tuesdays during the school year. We start serving at 12:40 PM and could use more help feeding these hungry kids. Please consider this outreach ministry for 2012.
