THE COLLECT OF THE DAY:

O God, the strength of all who put their trust in you: Mercifully accept our prayers; and because in our weakness we can do nothing good without you, give us the help of your grace, that in keeping your commandments we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

FIRST READING: 2 KINGS 5:1-14

Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man and in high favor with his master, because by him the LORD had given victory to Aram. The man, though a mighty warrior, suffered from leprosy. Now the Arameans on one of their raids had taken a young girl captive from the land of Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. She said to her mistress, "If only my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy." So Naaman went in and told his lord just what the girl from the land of Israel had said. And the king of Aram said, "Go then, and I will send along a letter to the king of Israel." He went, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten sets of garments. He brought the letter to the king of Israel, which read, "When this letter reaches you, know that I have sent to you my servant Naaman, that you may cure him of his leprosy." When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to give death or life, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Just look and see how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me." But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, that he may learn that there is a prophet in Israel." So Naaman came with his horses and chariots, and halted at the entrance of Elisha's house. Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go, wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored and you shall be clean." But Naaman became angry and went away, saying, "I thought that for me he would surely come out, and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, and would wave his hand over the spot, and cure the leprosy! Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them, and be clean?" He turned and went away in a rage. But his servants approached and said to him, "Father, if the prophet had commanded you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more, when all he said to you was, 'Wash, and be clean?'" So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean.

Psalm 30

I will exalt you, O LORD, because you have lifted me /up*
and have not let my enemies triumph /over me.

O LORD my God, I cried /out to you, *
and you restored me to /health.

You brought me up, O LORD, from the /dead; *
you restored my life as I was going down to the /grave.

Sing to the LORD, you servants of /his; *
give thanks for the remembrance of his /holiness.

For his wrath endures but the twinkling of an /eye, *
his favor for a /lifetime.

Weeping may spend the /night, *
but joy comes in the /morning.

While I felt secure, I said, "I shall never be dis /turbed. *
You, LORD, with your favor, made me as strong as the / mountains."

Then you hid your /face, *
and I was filled with /fear.

I cried to you, O /LORD; *
I pleaded with the Lord, /saying,

"What profit is there in my blood, if I go down to the /Pit? *
will the dust praise you or declare your /faithfulness?

Hear, O LORD, and have mercy u /pon me; *
O LORD, be my /helper."

You have turned my wailing into /dancing; *
you have put off my sack-cloth and clothed me with /joy.

Therefore my heart sings to you without /ceasing; *
O LORD my God, I will give you thanks for /ever.

The Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 9:24-27

Do you not know that in a race the runners all compete, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may win it. Athletes exercise self-control in all things; they do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable one. So I do not run aimlessly, nor do I box as though beating the air; but I punish my body and enslave it, so that after proclaiming to others I myself should not be disqualified.

The Gospel: Mark 1:40-45

A leper came to Jesus begging him, and kneeling he said to him, "If you choose, you can make me clean." Moved with pity, Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him, and said to him, "I do choose. Be made clean!" Immediately the leprosy left him, and he was made clean. After sternly warning him he sent him away at once, saying to him, "See that you say nothing to anyone; but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, as a testimony to them." But he went out and began to proclaim it freely, and to spread the word, so that Jesus could no longer go into a town openly, but stayed out in the country; and people came to him from every quarter.

You are invited to fill out a visitor's card and place it in the alms basin. You may also sign the Guest Register. Informational brochures are found at the entrance of the church. We are glad you are here!

ALTAR FLOWERS: The flowers adorning the altar today were given by Eva & Lee Horton in celebration of the marriage of their son, Cade Horton to Jackie Rains on Feb. 11, 2012 in Austin, Texas. The sign-up sheets for 2012 are on the bulletin board by the parish hall kitchen. The orders are generally turned in to the florist during the first week of each month. The florist does the billing for us ($35.00 plus tax and delivery). The Church does not budget for flowers. It is up to the parishioners to donate if there are to be flowers on the altar. Your donations are always greatly appreciated.

Tax deductible donations are of course welcome and checks may be made to "Project Dignidad". Speak to Rebecca Duncan for more information and volunteer opportunities.

GO GREEN & RECYCLE": thanks to a generous donation, Emmanuel Church is making more efforts to "GO GREEN". Please help us by putting any recyclables in the large black bins located near the Parish Hall. Please do not bring your household recyclables. Go Green & Recycle does not require that we sort the recycling, so you can just drop it in one of the bins or the large green tote in the copy room. This is perfect for recycling Sunday bulletins, food wrappers and cans from meals, even the paper and plastic cups used during Courtyard Coffee. (Please note that they are not accepting Styrofoam, yet.)

GRACE AND GRUB Volunteers Needed! Emmanuel feeds 200+ high school students on Tuesdays during the school year. We start serving at 12:40 PM and could use more help feeding these hungry kids. Please consider this outreach ministry for 2012.

UCM ANNOUNCEMENT: It will soon be time once again for the annual Children's Fair sponsored by Healthy Families of San Angelo. We are again looking for donations of cookie dough in order to continue our cookie sales at this event. 90% of all money raised by us (minus a $15 booth fee this year) is retained by UCM to help support our programs. I sincerely thank everyone who has contributed in the past and hope that you will continue to do so. The best sellers are (in order of popularity) chocolate chip, macadamia nut, white chocolate chunk, m&m, snicker doodle, peanut butter, and sugar. Cookie dough can be dropped off at the church office. Thank you for your support.
